

1

John's email

John gets a text message from USAA that says his account is locked. It tells him to click on a link for more information. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should he do?

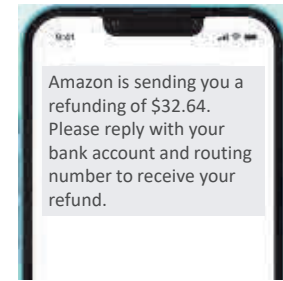

2

1

Cati's text message

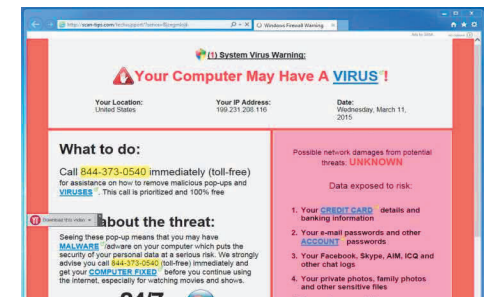

Cati gets a text message from Amazon that says she has a refund. The message says she needs to reply with her bank account and routing number. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should she do?

3

Tony's pop-up window

Tony is on a web page when a pop-up window says that his computer is infected. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should he do?

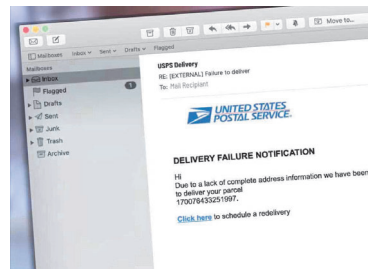

4

2

David's email

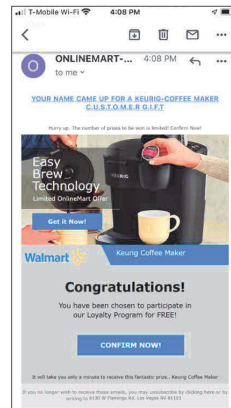

David gets an email on his computer from the United States Postal Service. It asks him to click on a link to schedule a delivery. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should he do?

5

David's email

Mark gets an email that he needs to confirm his gift immediately. The email looks like it is from Walmart. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should he do?

6

3

Sarah's text message

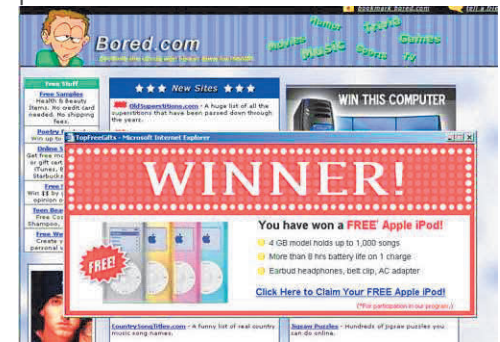

Sarah gets a text message from Amazon about her account getting locked. The message asks her to click on a link. Is it safe or is it a scam? What should she do?

Your Amazon account has been locked because we've detected suspicious activity on your account. Recovery your account immediately by click link below:
<https://m.v.k.com/away.php?cheer=front&elite=level&o=https://mobile-manage-details-amazon-bunny20112.codeanyapp.com>

7

Barbara's pop-up window

Barbara is on a web page. She gets a pop-up window telling her that she is a winner. Is this safe or is it a scam? What should she do?

8

4